Upcoming Activities and Programs

“The Play’s the Thing”

Join us this summer as we explore the world of the theater. As well as reading the plays as literature, we also plan to have fun with reading parts aloud (participation is purely voluntary), acting out with props (again, voluntary), and comparing different productions on video.

Group meets at 5:30 p.m.

The Reviews are in!! “EQUUS” by Peter Shaffer, a discussion and reading held on Thursday, June 25 was an resounding hit!!

Join us next for...

“Blithe Spirit” by Noel Coward

Thursday, July 30

Researching material for a new novel, Charles engages Madame Arcati, a spiritual medium of uncertain talents, to communicate with the dead. Quite by accident, she summons the spirit of Charles’s first wife, Elvira, and can’t make her go away. Ruth, Charles’ current wife, is rather put out. This 1941 comedy features Coward’s sparkling dialogue and a wickedly clever plot.

Coming in August: “Speed the Plow” by David Mamet
 Coming in September: “Joe Turner’s Come and Gone”
 by August Wilson
