

YODEL

www.leagueofcities.org/yodel

A youth leadership program designed to mentor area youth, grow future leadership, help focus visions & opportunity to benefit our area youth and our communities.

- We mentor youth to assist them in becoming tomorrow's leaders.
- Youth delegates take charge of their future, learn problem solving skills and apply them for community betterment.
- Selected youth travel as area ambassadors on advocacy trips to the Florida League and National League of Cities conferences.
- Participants get involved in community-wide issues and help create solutions and programs.
- The YODEL experience will enhance and significantly change a participating youth's life in so many positive ways! Future leaders will be motivated and emerge from this unique experience and unparalleled opportunity.
- Interested school-age youth (13 - 19 yrs) may apply with forms on the League's website. H.S. Seniors may also wish to apply for our William A. Cruickshank Scholarship program for public careers study.
