Oakwood Center of the Palm Beaches, Inc. announces a new program: Coping with Economic Stress

Funded by the Palm Healthcare Foundation this program will be offered free to participants.

This timely and important program was developed to help people suffering from unemployment, underemployment, general financial hardship and those who have survived layoffs but now have to deal with increased workloads.

Program Components

- Therapeutic and educational workshops – held once a week for 5 weeks
 - Program will offer individual and family counseling (10 sessions)
- Topics to include developing healthy coping skills, how to identify stressors, importance of family communication and healthy personal stress relief
- Participants will be provided with the necessary coping skills to deal with the negative implications of the challenging economy

Admission Criteria

- Any and all individuals experiencing stress from economic hardships
 - If space is limited, people with families will be given priority

This program will be operated from the Palm Healthcare Foundation, Mollie Wilmot Center located in the Palm Healthcare Pavilion at 1016 North Dixie Highway, West Palm Beach, FL 33401.

For more information on this program and how to participate please contact:
